FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 13, 2008

Illinois Judges Association Launches 7th Annual Book Drive

The Illinois Judges Association (IJA) has launched its 7th annual children's book drive.

Under the supervision of Cook County Judge Jesse G. Reyes, IJA Past President, children's books in new and gently used condition can be delivered to the judge's chambers, courtroom 2811, in the Daley Center. Last year, the IJA collected and distributed more than 10,000 books.

The books will be distributed to low-income families throughout Illinois as part of a series of Family Reading Nights at elementary schools. For more information, call the IJA at (312) 431-1283.

The Illinois Judges Association, composed of 1,100 active and retired judges, provides continuing legal education to its members and education to the public on matters related to the justice system.
